Early years education for Aboriginal families - what research has told us?

We should ask you what you want at your centre.
Staff can help you fill out paperwork.
You like it when you can see health workers there.
You need to trust the educators.
You need safe and reliable transport to get to centres.
You need to know how much it will cost.
We need to provide lots of play time as well as learning time.
You would like to be involved in how the centres are run.
Centres should be welcoming and close to your Indigenous community.
Staff need to be aware of history and culture, and include it in play and learning.
You want to see the centre and meet the staff.
You need to know how much it will cost.
Employ Aboriginal people.
You need to TRUST the educators.
You like it when you can see health workers there.

Thank you for participating in research with the Social Research Centre
